

Listed Buildings by Parish

Hollington

LB Ref	Address	Description	Grade	Date Listed
81395	Lodge Farm Hollington Derbyshire DE6 3GA	Farmhouse, now outbuildings. C17 and C18. Brick and timber framing. Remains of thatched roof covered with corrugated iron. Brick coped gable with plain kneelers. Two brick gable stacks and remains of a brick ridge stack. Single storey plus attics. Originally a three room plan, extended to four rooms to east in C18. South elevation of four bays. Ground floor has a 3-light casement window to left, then a doorway, a small rectangular window, a 2-light window, a doorway and a 3-light window. Three 2-light eyebrow dormer windows above in C17 part. Wall plate exposed beneath them. Inside is one cruck truss with tie beam and arched braces, and a stud partition. Inglenook with moulded bressumer at the junction of the C17 and C18 parts.	II	12/07/1985

LB Ref	Address	Description	Grade	Date Listed
81396	Barn Farm Hollington Derbyshire DE6 3GB	Farmhouse and cottage, now all one. Mid C18. Brick with coped gables and plain kneelers. Plain tile roof with two brick ridge stacks. Dentilled eaves band. Three room plan with gabled staircase tower to rear. Two storeys and attics. West elevation of three bays, with three broad segmental arched windows with small pane casement lights. Three similar windows above. Between bays one and two from the left, a doorway with segmental arched head and plank door, and a similar blocked doorway. Above the latter, a C20 casement window with flat head. Rear elevation with two C20 doorways and a C20 window. In the projecting staircase tower a tall plain staircase window. Dogleg staircase within stick balusters. Plaster floors in all but one room and moulded beams in the main two rooms. Listed for Group Value.	II	12/07/1985
81397	Barn Farm Hollington Derbyshire DE6 3GB	Stables with loft over. 1852. Tile roof. L-plan. Two storeys. East elevation has four doorways with basket arches and stepped surrounds. Stable type doors. Four rectangular window openings. One similar upper doorway with stable type doors and two smaller openings with plank doors. Three tiers of breather openings. Return elevation has two similar doorways, a window and an arched opening to ground floor, and two windows above. Listed for group value only.	II	12/07/1985
81398	Ardsley House Hoargate Lane Hollington Derbyshire DE6 3AG	Gate piers and walls. Early C18 from Longford Hall, re-erected c1950. Red brick and sandstone ashlar. Two piers either end of a three bay brick wall, with pilaster buttresses and stone copings. Ashlar piers of shallow cruciform plan, or square with pilasters at the sides, terminated by inverted carved brackets. Moulded abacus and urn-like top.	II	12/07/1985

LB Ref	Address	Description	Grade	Date Listed
81399	Ivy House Farm Marsh Hollow Hollington Derbyshire DE6 3GB	House. Early C18. Red brick with stone coped gables and moulded kneelers. Tiled roof with central brick stack. T-plan. Two storeys plus attics. First and second floor brick bands and dentilled eaves band. East elevation of two almost symmetrical bays. Ground floor with two wooden cross windows, the right hand one with segmental arch over a flat head. Two 2-light windows above with flat heads and segmental arches above. South gable end has two blocked segmental arched windows to ground floor, one similar above and a 2-light window in the gable. Lower rear wing with dentil eaves cornice. Inside the front range are two rooms divided by a broad chimney stack with an angle- nook in north room with four small cupboards with raised and fielded panelled doors. South room has raised and fielded panelling on the north wall and a raised and fielded panelled stone chimney piece with fluted keystone. Dado around the other three walls. Double cornice.	II	12/07/1985
Total	5			